

PUBLIC LEADER

THIRD YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1894.

ONE CENT.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

GILBERT A. COLLINS is somewhat better.

INOTON, O., is going to have a new electric fire system.

HENRY OTTO has bought John Dorsey's saloon on Market street.

WILLIAM E. ANDERSON and Mattie Williams, colored, married yesterday.

The Flemingsburg City Council has reduced the tax rate from 47c. to 46c. on the $100.

SUBSCRIBE NOW for stock in the Tenth Series of the Limestone Building Association. Call on any of the officers.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the close of the prayer-meeting at the Christian Church this evening.

The first United States census, taken in 1790, gives the value of real estate at $479,000,000; of houses and personal property at $141,000,000.

The highest price paid for property in London until 1888 was 1,385 square feet. Old Broad street sold for £37,000—£1,390,000 an acre, or $6,300,000.

In 1891 Great Britain had 3,572,000 houses, whose rental value was £200,000,000; now there are 7,100,000 houses; rental value, £284,700,000.

THORNTON W. PINCKARD of the C. and O. was out a few days ago for the first time in many weeks. He is slowly recovering from a stroke of paralysis.

The Associated Charities acknowledge the following donations: Mrs. Emily Dohms and Mrs. Hamilton Gray, $5; Mrs. Fanny A. Hays, $5; J. Foster Barbour, $5.

The Pittsburgh towboat, Horat No. 2, sank a 30,000 bushel barge of coal at Barren Island recently, and is now at the bank with the balance of her tow just below that point.

The trotter Jayhawker that made such a phenomenal record at the Mayville Fair last August a year ago, was sold at Lexington Monday for $8,000. W. T. Clabey of that city being the purchaser.

HARRY BLAKE, the Portsmouth ball player who made such a record last year in the local games as an all round player and extra base hitter, will go to Atlanta, Ga., this season to enter the Southern League.

GENERAL JACOB AMMEN, the oldest surviving General of the late war, died at Lockland, O., aged 88. His second wife, who died in 1887, was a daughter of General Nathaniel Massey and a niece of the late "Squire" Massey Reasley of Aberdeen.

The Hotel Ventures at Ashland has been rented by A. C. Campbell to Captain Watt Sheild of Cincinnati, who will take charge of the building in a short time. The Captain is a well known hotel and river man, and is now identified with the White Collar Line of steiners.

SO FAR there has been a remarkable absence of ice in the Ohio river this season, and it does not seem that we are to have any at all. Some little ice was noticeable once or twice last week, but it came only from along the shores and creek outlets and was of no consequence.

W. W. BALL has a design for a handsome residence which he is erecting on his property at the mouth of Limestone at an early date. It will make a most attractive home, and Mr. Ball's is the only site adapted to its style.

The earnings of the L. and N. Railroad for the four weeks ending in January were $204,850, a decrease of $95,000 from the same time last year. The decrease for the month of January was $390,084—showing how blessed it is to be in business these good Democratic times.

NEAR Limestone Charles O'Leary, aged 23, lost his balance and fell out of a wagon, the wheels passing over his chest, crushing his body so that he died in thirty minutes. Only six weeks ago he was wedded to Miss Fannie Jennings, who is almost crazed over the sudden calamity.

The concert for the benefit of the Associated Charities, THE LEDGER regrets to say, was not a financial success. The entire receipts were less than $35, and the Treasurer of the Associated Charities had to go down in his pocket to pay the expenses. Mr. Kinneman of the Opera-house also "lost out" on it.

The House Committee on the Judiciary have favorably reported a bill to divide Kentucky into two judicial districts. His action is largely based on the amount of whiskey and tobacco produced in the state, and the consequent business for the courts in deciding questions concerning the internal revenue laws.

The works of Martin Luther bear evidence to the fullness of his vocabulary of abuse. In denouncing his adversaries in controversy he followed the custom of his time. In his controversy with Henry VIII. he called the Majesty of England a knave, a fool, rotten worm of the earth, a ridiculous deacon and other things that will not bear reprinting.

W. O. BAKER, a Postal Clerk on this division of the C. and O., was presented with a magnificent silver service by his old associates upon his retirement a few days ago.

HOPKINSVILLE is to have a handsome new hotel built of Milwaukee brick and trimmed with terra cotta. Mayville would have a ten-story skyscraper, built of silver brick and trimmed with gold fringe, if wind would build it.

FRED W. BERTHAM and Miss Agnes Conner were quietly married at the Baptist parsonage last night by the Rev. R. G. Patrick. Mr. and Mrs. Crane are well known young people and have a host of friends. THE LEDGER extends to them a successful and pleasant life.

H. P. WARDEN of Mexico, Mo., is here on legal business and was sworn in as an attorney by Circuit Clerk Woodward yesterday. His business is looking after the interest of Robert Murphy in the estate of the late William H. Murphy of Shannon. It will be remembered that THE LEDGER a few weeks ago gave a history of this somewhat remarkable case.

The Limestone's Dividend.
The Limestone Building Association has declared a 6c dividend and return of the monthly dues, which amounts to the following on each share:

Second series.....$3 70
Third series.....4 60
Fourth series.....4 10
Fifth series.....3 30
Sixth series.....3 25
Seventh series.....1 75
Eighth series.....1 60
Ninth series.....35

This dividend will be paid the first Saturday night in March.

Baseball Club Assured.
The Y. M. C. A. Athletic Organization perfected last night.

Last night at the Y. M. C. A. Hall a goodly number of enthusiasts responded to the call for a baseball club.

An organization was perfected and the following officers elected:

President—William H. Cox.
Vice-President—Harry Taylor.
General Manager—Harry C. Curran.
Hon. Sec.—George T. Hunter.
John C. Adams, William D. Corbin, Dr. W. C. Franklin.

It goes without saying that a baseball club our city means recreation for our citizens, both ladies and gentlemen, and under its present system and government it means elevation and great personal good, both physically and mentally.

The Street Railroad Company has generously offered 10 per cent. of its receipts taken at each and every professional game played; furthermore they offer free transportation to and from the grounds for players whenever practicing is done and free carriage to visiting clubs.

The Fair Company asks 10 per cent. of the gate receipts coming from professional games. They offer sufficient ground in front of the Floral Hall, where seats are arranged, so that a fine amphitheater is had free from the sun and a comfortable seat assured all.

It's coming early, and you must get ready to take stock to buy the necessary material, so that the club will start off with assured success.

On to-morrow we will publish the rules and regulations governing the club.

MAQUERADE BALL
At the Residence of Miss Lila Rogers in Honor of the Junior Circle.

The Long Year Maquerade Ball at the residence of Miss Lila Rogers on East Third Street in honor of the Junior Circle was a complete success.

The young ladies and gentlemen, attired in costumes of the most elaborate description, "tripped the light fantastic" in the most common manner.

Henry Wadsworth and his friend Miss Hall held in place the wallpaper brought out the evening. Miss Dullin Moss served as a choice piece of bric-a-brac, while her friend, Mr. Cummings, was the rag. Misses Cheesman and Darnall, attired in a costume of white, took the emblem of purity and innocence. As Burgess was decidedly the master of the evening, owing to the absence of George Lloyd, Mr. Curran abandoned his loving friends, Miss Bisset and Miss Wadsworth, who very nobly entertained him.

Miss Worick, attired in a charming costume of black brocade trimmed in blue silk with diamond ornaments, was the belle of the ball. Miss Stanley Nolin lent her presence for the occasion, while Charles Calkins was the "Barnum's" star.

It was altogether an enjoyable evening, and the charming Miss Rogers is a personage hostess within herself.

A BOLD ROBBERY.
Slipped on the Mud by Officer Purnell This Morning.

Officer Frank Purnell slipped a neat robbery in the mud last night or rather this morning.

He was walking along on East Third street about 8 o'clock this morning when he slipped on a patch of mud.

The officer had placed himself in the middle of the street behind a telegraph pole and was watching every move.

The fellows had succeeded in opening the chest, and were loading themselves down with the contents and enough oysters to feed a universe and enough yeast to raise a hurricane had been lifted out of the box and which they contemplated carrying off.

But they didn't. No. Tell you how it was: You see, the officer just waited until his victims had made their job up clean, and then he made a leap toward them that would make any bird ashamed of itself, and in less time than it takes to tell he was taking to the prison the bold intruders.

They were tried by the Grand Jury and Charles Thompson, two well known characters, and will be given a hearing this morning on the charge of burglary.

JULIUS DUNN, one of the famous jewelry family of Cincinnati, fell full forty feet down a stairway, and strange to say no bones were broken. He was badly injured, however, but may recover.

A Wedding This Morning.
The wedding of Rolia C. Owens and Miss Mollie E. Blanchard took place this morning at 9 o'clock in the parlors at the residence of Rev. E. B. Calkins.

Employed at the Mayville Manufacturing Company, and is a popular young man, while Miss Blanchard is a daughter of John and Jane Blanchard, and a most accomplished and refined young lady.

Both have many warm friends who will join with their wedding party in wishing them a happy and prosperous life.

They left at 10 o'clock train for Cincinnati.

LECTURER ARRESTED.
Americans the Only Ones Who Have No Rights in America.

Colonel Sims, the American Protective Association lecturer, was arrested at Appleton, Wis., on his way to Kaukauna, a civil warrant sworn out by Humphrey Pierce, the Mayor of Appleton.

Sims some time ago gave a lecture at Kaukauna, which resulted in a riot, and he was chased out of town.

He gave notice that he would return, and started from Oshkosh with about 300 of his followers and the Arlon Band for Kaukauna.

Kaukauna Catholics had prepared to receive him and his crowd in such a way that the residents became alarmed, and the Mayor of Kaukauna and some of the officials went to Appleton to consult the Appleton official.

When Sims was arrested his followers got off the train and formed in line down the avenue, where the band played patriotic selections.

If Archbishop Ireland were advertised for a lecture in Kaukauna would the Kaukauna Methodists or Baptists or Presbyterians organize and drive him out of town?

Are we in free America or are we in Italy?

Where are we at anyway?

MY GILDED.
Born, to the wife of J. L. Savage, January 21st, a daughter, Clara Davis.
Mrs. John W. Jordan is suffering from cold and attack of asthma, complicated with cold.
Miss Lena Bradley is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. B. Tully, in Tolleboro this week.
Our fine horses are about fitted with a nice clear article of three and one-half inch lugs.
Sam Tull Farrow moved from Mt. Carmel to his father's farm at the mouth of Pole Cat last Wednesday.
Joseph Lukins has been quite poorly the last week, but is somewhat improved and able to be around again.
William Pleasant and Annie Coleman, colored, were married Sunday at the African Church at Orangeburg.
Last week's Bulletin erred in giving the price at which W. W. Davenport sold his horse and buggy. It should have been $200 instead of $170.
And still no tobacco buyers. Well, if they will only remain away until after the setting season for this year, the nut put will be lessened and the price will get better.
However much we might wish to see every child of proper age in the state of Kentucky in school during the school term, we should be very careful about enforcing a law making their attendance compulsory. Such a law would impose upon the extremely poor burdens and embarrassments that cannot be understood by those who have never had to suffer for the ordinary comforts of life. A child can remain at home and stay out of the fire without shoes and with very scanty clothing, but this child cannot trudge to school over the frozen roads, without shoes and without clothing that will insure some degree of protection from the cold. Our laws are liberal inasmuch as they forbade free tuition to all and books to them who are not able to buy them, but until our liberality is extended to include suitable clothing and food, a law making attendance at school compulsory would be out of place, and since its provisions could not be complied with, it should have no place on our statute books, unless accompanied with ample provisions to feed and clothe at least 10 per cent. of our school population. This would necessitate an increase in our school tax or a material shortening of the school term. We want all the advantages of compulsory education, but we want some intelligent care taken in formulating the law, and above all let us be careful not to write a law on the statute of Kentucky that will ask impossible things of the extremely poor, or a law, that to enforce, would be cruel and inhuman. We do not wish to be understood as being opposed to compulsory education in the general use of the term, but let us be careful that we do not make the burden of the poor we do not make the burden greater.

FRESH FISH AT MARTIN BROS.
